Message from the Director:

Welcome to the City of Sugar Land's first online leisure guide, featuring our first recreation center, the Imperial Park Recreation Center!

Inside you find a wide variety of leisure classes, recreation programs, athletic activity information and details on our upcoming special events! Published 3 times a year, Fall, Winter/Spring & Summer, let this downloadable document be your guide to discovering new skills, hobbies, fun activities, improved health & wellness and the opportunity to create "memorable moments" with your friends and family.

The City of Sugar Land provides an award winning park and recreation system of 1,285 acres that make up 22 city parks and approximately 14.5 miles of trails for you and your family to enjoy! And now, the beautiful 17,000+ square feet of indoor recreation is yours to enjoy at the Imperial Park Recreation Center, located at 234 Matlage Way.

We look forward to seeing you and your family enjoy the brand new gymnasium, group fitness/exercise room, rentable meeting space and the many exciting new programs, sports leagues and special events that are planned for your leisure and recreational fulfillment!

Get out and play!

Duhacsek Park

This 50-acre park site was donated to the city by the late Walter and Virginia Duhacsek. This homestead, located at the intersections of Voss and Old Richmond Road, is filled with huge hand-grafted pecan trees.

This facility can be reserved for large groups and is able to accommodate activities such as Scout group functions and day camps. It is an ideal setting for corporate outings, weddings, family reunions, or church picnics. It has large open spaces for group gatherings as well as wooded areas for nature walks.

Oyster Creek Park - 4033 State Highway 6 South

Oyster Creek Park

This three-mile hike and bike trail is accessible from Lexington Blvd., Dulles Ave., and Hwy 6. In addition to the Greenbelt Trail, a water feature with rock-lined falls and a pond are near the Hwy. 6 entrance, adjacent to Oyster Creek.

This facility includes picnic tables, grills, benches, the Liberty Garden, parking and a restroom. A stage/ amphitheater covering accentuates Parks and Recreation's Concert Series, Red White and Bluefest and other special events. The stage area of the park can be reserved for private functions.

Park Ambassadors

The City of Sugar Land Park Ambassador program assists in monitoring over 1,285 acres of park and public lands; including several neighborhood parks, expansive trail networks, six community facilities and public pool.

In addition to monitoring the parks, the Park Ambassador provides quality customer service to park patrons through answering questions, program promotion, reporting problems and serving as a liaison to park patrons and organizations that utilize the park and park facilities.

Please call 281.275. for more info.
